

Urban dimension of the Atlantic Strategy: actions

Actions	Leader	Content
- Valorisation of the relationships between Atlantic Cities	Caen/CAAC Secretariat	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Definition of the map of twinnings and associations in the European Atlantic Area</li> <li>- Definition of the twinning map with cities from the other side of the Atlantic</li> <li>- Agreements with American and African networks</li> <li>- Synergies on urban questions and implication of the citizens with the Area</li> <li>- For Africa/Latin America: alignment of cooperation measures</li> </ul>
- Integrating Universities	Know Cities project	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Know-cities is a process of reflection on concluded strategies and cooperation processes in the new world stage of the knowledge economy</li> <li>- Identification of universities, research centres and other academic bodies that work in the cities of the Atlantic Arc, on interesting matters for the Strategy</li> </ul>
- Climate Change	Cardiff/Nantes	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Summary of the challenges and opportunities for the cities of the Atlantic Arc</li> <li>- Defining topics of common interest that could be: economic impact of climate change, climate change and management of the risks, communication to citizens, to communities and to companies</li> <li>- Sharing this knowledge and integrating it in the Strategy</li> </ul>
- Urban Mobility	AIRE 198	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Networking on good practices concerning sustainable urban mobility</li> <li>- Define/ capitalize good practices of cities and set guidelines</li> <li>- Identifying fields for action and innovative reflection</li> <li>- Completing the vision of transport in the Atlantic Area</li> </ul>
- Ports	Brest/Gijón	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Defining the influence of ports in the development of the Atlantic Area and its cities as well as links with other topics, such as a climate change or heritage</li> <li>- Areas of reflection so as to establish good practices and future actions</li> <li>- Developing a common vision including different stakeholders so as to find synergies</li> <li>- Seminar Gijón: May 20/ Agreement CVPP</li> </ul>